THE RESIDENCE

Chalet Tesseln

Occupying one of Verbier's most coveted positions, Chalet Tesseln is a handsome free-standing residence offering a rare ski-in, ski-out experience with 100 metres of off-piste access directly from the chalet. Across four generous floors and approximately 400 square metres, the chalet accommodates up to eight adults and four children across five en-suite bedrooms, each conceived as a sanctuary of comfort. Sweeping, uninterrupted Alpine views accompany every aspect of the property, while its private and discreet setting ensures an atmosphere of complete exclusivity.

The principal living floor is an exercise in refined Alpine warmth. An open-plan sitting and dining area, anchored by a magnificent stone fireplace, invites guests to gather over champagne before moving to the elegant dining table, which seats ten. The kitchen may be artfully closed from view when desired, and a small library provides a quieter retreat. French doors from the dining room lead to a sun-drenched terrace with a barbecue and outdoor dining, while a large wrap-around balcony at the front of the chalet captures the winter sun in full. The entire top floor is devoted to the master suite, a genuinely private haven complete with its own fireplace, en-suite bathroom and a private balcony commanding exceptional panoramic vistas. The ground floor houses four further bedrooms, including two twin and double rooms with garden access and two children's bunk rooms, each with its own en-suite facilities and direct access to the outdoors.

Below, the lower ground floor offers every indulgence after a day on the mountain. A hammam, a dedicated television and family room, and a boot room with a heated floor ensure that comfort continues long after the lifts have closed. This level also accommodates a self-contained staff apartment with a single bedroom, en-suite shower room and kitchenette, ideal for a private nanny or personal staff. A laundry room and one indoor garage space complete this exceptionally well-considered chalet, available at rates from CHF 33,260 to CHF 108,580 per week.
