THE RESIDENCE

Chalet Shalimar

Tucked serenely within the quiet residential quarter of Winkelmatten, Chalet Shalimar is one of Zermatt's most closely guarded secrets, a magnificent 866-square-metre residence accommodating up to twenty guests across ten beautifully appointed twin and double bedrooms, each with its own en-suite bath and shower room. The chalet's positioning is exceptional, affording what are arguably the finest views of the Matterhorn in the entire resort, with every apartment enjoying a private balcony or terrace from which to contemplate that legendary, dramatically sculpted peak. The centre of Zermatt lies a pleasant fifteen-minute walk away, while a nearby gondola offers effortless access to the Glacier Paradise above.

At the heart of the chalet, a dedicated wellness and spa level houses an indoor swimming pool overlooking the Matterhorn, a sauna, a hammam, and a private massage room, together forming an incomparable retreat after a day on the mountain. The uppermost floor is given over entirely to living and dining, where floor-to-ceiling sliding doors draw in remarkable natural light and open onto spacious balconies perfectly suited to pre-dinner gatherings or spring afternoons in the Alpine sunshine. Traditional timber and warm alpine soft furnishings create an atmosphere of effortless comfort throughout, while a roaring fire anchors the main sitting room for convivial evenings after dark.

Chalet Shalimar offers remarkable flexibility for large parties, whether a single group of twenty dining together in the generous main dining room or two separate parties occupying a self-contained eight-person apartment and a twelve-person apartment, each with their own living spaces and facilities. Two further sitting areas and two entertainment rooms ensure that quieter moments of solitude are always within reach. A dedicated ski and boot room on the ground floor completes the practical provision, and the chalet is available on a catered, bed and breakfast, self-catered or accommodation-only basis to suit every preference.
