THE RESIDENCE

Chalech L

Chalech L is a sensational alpine apartment set across two generous floors and spanning 230 square metres, sleeping eight guests across four beautifully appointed bedrooms. Part of one of Lech's most prestigious new developments, the property is positioned just a ten-minute walk from the centre of the village and only a few minutes from the nearest ski lift, placing the very best of this celebrated Austrian resort within effortless reach. Traditional alpine materials and artisan craftsmanship are married throughout with contemporary design and plush furnishings, resulting in an interior that is at once deeply rooted in its mountain setting and thoroughly refined in character.

Entering on the upper floor, guests are welcomed into a spectacular open-plan kitchen, living and dining room crowned by double-height ceilings and generous windows that frame sweeping views of the village, snowy peaks and forests beyond. The living area is anchored by an open fireplace, a modern interpretation of the traditional Austrian stubel, whilst atmospheric lighting and muted, sumptuous fabrics lend the space an air of sophisticated warmth. The dining table seats eight comfortably beneath striking pendant lighting, creating an ideal setting for long, convivial evenings. Also on this floor, a beautifully dressed twin or double bedroom features an en-suite bathroom combining sleek slate with aged alpine timber, a detail repeated with quiet elegance throughout all bathrooms. Descending to the lower floor, the principal bedroom suite emerges as a true sanctuary, decorated in natural green tones and soft luxurious fabrics, complete with a reading area, desk, television, terrace access and a stunning en-suite bathroom with separate shower and private sauna. Two further twin or double bedrooms, each finished with the same meticulous attention to detail, offer terrace access, desks and televisions, with en-suite facilities throughout.

Chalech L affords its guests shared access to a luxurious swimming pool, tepidarium, gym and spa, enjoyed alongside just four other properties within the Chalech development, ensuring an atmosphere of exclusivity and calm. Priced from EUR 8,760 to EUR 99,240 per week, with a security deposit of EUR 5,000, the apartment is available across a range of service levels to suit every preference, from self-catered independence to a fully catered retreat complete with private chef and dedicated hosts.
