THE RESIDENCE

Antoinette

Antoinette occupies the entire top floor of the prestigious Chalet Austria building, a supremely elegant penthouse completed in 2010 to the very highest standards of Alpine craftsmanship. Soaring vaulted ceilings, reclaimed aged timbers and natural stone surfaces combine to create an atmosphere of genuine refinement, while the owners' meticulous attention to the quality of furnishings elevates every room into something truly exceptional. Positioned just a short walk from the Nasserein lift station and ten minutes from the heart of St Anton, the apartment offers both extraordinary convenience and a rare sense of elevated seclusion across its generous two hundred square metres.

Designed with effortless entertaining in mind, the open plan living and dining area at the western end of the apartment features a traditional Austrian fireplace and generous French windows that open onto a wraparound balcony, framing breathtaking views across the St Anton valley and the ski runs threading back into the village below. A well appointed kitchen serves a dining table that seats twelve with ease, while an adjacent snug, softened with rugs and cushions, invites quieter moments after dinner. Five en suite bedrooms accommodate twelve guests in considerable comfort, including a master bedroom with direct balcony access and its own television, three further rooms configurable as doubles or twins, and a fifth room with four bespoke hand crafted adult bunk beds.

Beyond the beautifully appointed private quarters, Antoinette's guests enjoy access to a lower ground floor spa comprising a sauna, hammam, shower and relaxation area, as well as a shared ski locker and boot heating room. A laundry room with washer and tumble dryer is located within the apartment itself, and external parking for two vehicles completes the practical provision. When guests choose a catered light arrangement, meals are prepared in a dedicated professional kitchen on the lower floor and served privately within the apartment, ensuring every evening unfolds in effortless, intimate luxury.
