THE RESIDENCE

Chalet Melilot

Newly built and impeccably conceived, Chalet Melilot occupies a coveted position in the sought-after Les Esserts quarter of Verbier, offering four guests an intimate and deeply considered retreat across three thoughtfully arranged floors spanning one hundred and twenty square metres. The south-facing orientation ensures the chalet is bathed in light throughout the day, while panoramic views sweep across the valley floor and rise to the Grand Combin range and Savoleyers beyond, a prospect enjoyed equally from the sunny balcony, furnished with four sun loungers, and from within the warm, beautifully composed interior.

Arrival through the ski cave immediately sets the tone: boot warmers, generous hanging and storage space, a downstairs WC and a dedicated laundry room with washer and dryer speak to the practical intelligence underpinning this property's luxury. The principal living, dining and kitchen floor above is a masterclass in alpine refinement, centred on a sleek kitchen appointed with state-of-the-art Gaggenau and Bora appliances, soft alpine furnishings, comfortable seating, a handsome log-burning fireplace, and a statement pendant lamp suspended above the dining table. A small shower room completes this floor.

The two twin and double bedrooms on the uppermost floor are lined in beautiful light timber panelling and illuminated by generous skylights. The master bedroom commands its own private balcony with excellent views and is served by a light, airy en-suite bathroom, whilst the second bedroom's floor-to-ceiling architectural glazing frames an arresting panorama across the valley to the Grand Combin. Positioned directly beside the Les Esserts beginner slope, and with the possibility to ski through Hameau to the Le Rouge piste when conditions allow, Chalet Melilot is equally well connected by a bus stop a mere two-minute walk away, with one outdoor parking space available for guests travelling by car.
