THE RESIDENCE

Breithorn

Perched above the village just off Route de Golf, in one of Verbier's most coveted residential quarters, Breithorn is a sublime duplex apartment of 266 square metres commanding sweeping panoramas across the resort and the soaring peaks beyond. Positioned close to the Les Esserts slope and only a short drive from Carrefour, the apartment offers effortless access to Verbier's principal ski area, making it an equally natural choice for devoted skiers and families seeking an exceptional Alpine base.

The heart of the apartment is a generously proportioned open-plan living and dining area where grey-washed, vaulted beamed ceilings impart a quietly elegant character to the space. Plush sofas and armchairs invite relaxed evenings beside the large stone wood-burning fireplace, while an eclectic collection of antiques, artwork, books and curiosities gathered from the owner's travels lend the interiors a warmth and personality that no decorator could manufacture. French doors open onto a south-facing balcony, the ideal setting for a sunset apéritif, and the dining table seats eight beneath sculptural circular pendant lighting. The semi-open-plan kitchen features a sociable serving hatch and its own small balcony, ensuring the cook remains part of the conversation.

Descending to the lower level, four individually styled en-suite double bedrooms each open onto their own private balcony, perfect for a quiet morning coffee with mountain air. Striking artistic details, among them a petrified tree trunk installed above one of the beds, ensure every room rewards closer inspection, while supremely comfortable beds and generous storage attend to every practical comfort. Three of the four bathrooms offer both bath and shower, with the fourth providing a spacious walk-in shower. Guests further benefit from a shared ski room within the building and the convenience of underground parking, completing a property that marries genuine Alpine soul with the standards one expects of an ultra-luxury Verbier retreat.
