THE RESIDENCE

Chalet Grand Coeur

Chalet Grand Coeur is a newly built private residence occupying an exclusive Verbier neighbourhood, its elevated position commanding sweeping views across the town to the distant snow-capped peaks beyond the valley. Accommodation for up to eight guests across four bedrooms makes this an exceptional choice for a family Alpine retreat, positioned less than a minute's drive from the Savoleyres lift station for effortless access to the mountain.

The principal living space occupies the top floor in a beautifully conceived open-plan arrangement beneath a double-height vaulted ceiling, where exposed timber lends an authentically Alpine warmth to the interior. A dining table for eight, dressed with Scandinavian wishbone chairs and lit by layered pendant lampshades, faces a plush seating area gathered around a rustic stone fireplace, whilst a breakfast bar with stools marks the transition to a sleek, fully appointed modern kitchen. A mezzanine above provides a quiet reading retreat, and large sliding glass doors open onto a sun-drenched terrace with uninterrupted Alpine views. The master suite on this floor offers a bathtub framed by mountain-facing windows, a separate shower and a shared balcony, finished throughout in cool neutral tones and natural wood.

The sleeping floor below houses a further double bedroom with its own en-suite shower room and direct terrace access, a twin and a twin and double bedroom, each with en-suite facilities. Beyond the terrace, the heated outdoor swimming pool, partially sheltered yet open to the elements, offers an otherworldly experience as steam rises into the crisp Alpine air amid a surround of mature trees, ensuring complete privacy. A generous ski room with ample storage completes this floor, and Chalet Grand Coeur is accessed via a dedicated path and steps, with direct vehicle access to the chalet not available.
