THE RESIDENCE

Chalet Foulon

Chalet Foulon is a newly built four-bedroom residence of 450 square metres, set on a sun-kissed plateau among traditional farmhouses on the edge of Verbier Village, with sweeping views across the valley below. Despite its serene, elevated position, Place Centrale is a mere ten-minute walk away and the ski lifts are reachable within four minutes by car, placing guests at the very heart of one of the Alps' most celebrated resorts without sacrificing a moment of privacy or calm.

The chalet unfolds across three thoughtfully composed floors. The principal living level draws the eye immediately, its open-plan kitchen, dining and sitting room anchored by a striking wood-burning fireplace and framed by floor-to-ceiling windows that flood every surface with natural light. Sliding doors give way to a generous balcony with an outdoor dining table, while inside a ten-seater table sets the scene for long, convivial evenings. As dusk falls and the village below begins to glow, the atmosphere becomes quietly enchanting. The ground floor is devoted entirely to wellbeing and leisure, centred on a heated indoor and outdoor swimming pool, an outdoor hot tub commanding panoramic mountain views, a home cinema with a large screen and comfortable seating, and a dedicated ski and boot room complete with boot warmers. Two beautifully appointed en-suite double bedrooms, one convertible to a twin, are found on this level alongside a charming bunk room decorated in alpine motifs, perfectly suited to younger guests.

The entire upper floor is reserved for the master suite, a private sanctuary encompassing a dressing room, a private balcony and a luxurious en-suite bathroom appointed with his and hers sinks, a separate shower and refined matte black fixtures. Accommodating up to eight guests plus two, and further enhanced by a gym, sauna and spa, Chalet Foulon offers a genuinely rare combination of architectural distinction, natural beauty and complete mountain comfort.
