THE RESIDENCE

Chalet 1855

Newly built and impeccably conceived, Chalet 1855 rises across five generous floors in Val d'Isère's coveted Le Bosset neighbourhood, just minutes from the main lift station and the town centre. Spanning 315 square metres and welcoming up to twelve guests across five bedrooms, the chalet's crowning top floor unfolds into a luminous living space graced with high ceilings, floor-to-ceiling windows and sweeping mountain panoramas. A wood-burning fireplace anchors the room, while designer furnishings and soft furs invite unhurried relaxation, and a dining table for ten ensures convivial meals enjoyed against an ever-changing alpine backdrop.

The five bedrooms are distributed thoughtfully across three floors, each appointed with en-suite facilities, and include a principal double suite on the third floor as well as a dedicated quad bunk room on the first floor. The second floor is given entirely to wellbeing, housing an indoor swimming pool, indoor hot tub, sauna, hammam and a private massage room, forming a comprehensive spa retreat rarely encountered in a private Alpine residence. A fully equipped gymnasium, a cinema room with a bar, a snug television room and a dedicated office complete the picture, ensuring that every waking hour, from first morning stretch to late-evening film, is catered for with equal refinement.

A practical ground floor boot room, a shared garage with parking for one car and an additional outdoor parking space ensure effortless transitions between the mountain and the warmth within. Chalet 1855 is available across a range of service levels, from self-catered to fully catered, each underpinned by daily housekeeping, a dedicated concierge and a suite of in-chalet services, allowing guests to tailor their stay with complete precision.
