THE RESIDENCE

Marmotte Penthouse

Occupying a commanding position in the heart of Verbier, Marmotte Penthouse is a 310 square metre retreat of exceptional refinement, accommodating up to ten guests across five beautifully appointed bedrooms. Positioned just a four minute walk from the nearest piste and a nine minute stroll from Place Centrale, this south facing penthouse unites the convenience of a premier alpine address with an interior of genuine warmth and contemporary elegance. Generous floor to ceiling windows draw the mountain panorama indoors, while a wood burning fireplace anchors the open plan living, dining and kitchen area in an atmosphere of intimate comfort. The dining table seats ten in effortless style, and countertops with high seating offer a more relaxed setting for morning conversations or après ski gatherings, all served by a kitchen equipped with top of the range appliances.

The master bedroom, situated on the first floor, is a serene double room with a luxurious ensuite featuring both bath and shower and his and hers sinks, opening directly onto a shared balcony furnished with plush sheepskins, a heater and outdoor furnishings that frame breathtaking mountain views from sunrise to sunset. The second floor presents a further double bedroom with ensuite shower room and balcony access, a twin bedroom with ensuite and his and hers sinks, and a quad bunk room ideal for younger guests. The mezzanine floor adds a children's twin bedroom, a cosy television snug and a small office, lending the property a thoughtful versatility that suits families and groups with equal grace.

Beyond the apartment itself, a private spa room two floors below houses a sauna and hammam, offering the perfect restorative conclusion to a day on the mountain, alongside a dedicated ski room complete with boot heaters and generous storage. Daily housekeeping, premium linen, robes, slippers and a dedicated concierge service attending to restaurant reservations and personalised requests are all included as standard, ensuring every moment at Marmotte Penthouse is attended to with the discreet care that defines a truly exceptional alpine stay.
