THE RESIDENCE

Chalet Cortil

Chalet Cortil is an elegant 180-square-metre alpine residence in Verbier, Switzerland, accommodating up to six guests plus two across four beautifully appointed bedrooms. Positioned just one minute from the Savoleyres lift station, the chalet commands unobstructed views across Verbier's celebrated mountain range and the village below, placing the finest of the Alps immediately at your doorstep.

The principal living spaces occupy the top floor, where soaring ceilings and generous south-facing windows flood the open-plan living, dining and kitchen area with natural light. A handsome stone fireplace anchors the sitting room, complemented by an L-shaped sofa and a pair of armchairs that invite long, unhurried evenings après-ski. The dining table seats ten, and a south-facing balcony fitted with a swing chair extends the living space outdoors, offering a serene vantage point over the peaks. The master bedroom on this level enjoys a private balcony, a dedicated en-suite shower room with his and hers sinks, and a television. On the ground floor, a double bedroom with a separate bathroom and two bunk rooms, each with a 140-centimetre double bed, an en-suite shower room and direct terrace access, complete an accommodation plan that combines alpine warmth with considered modern design.

Every practical comfort has been thoughtfully addressed: the entrance hall provides dedicated outerwear storage, whilst a utility room houses a washer, dryer and boot heaters, and both ski storage and a private garage parking space are available outside. Whether arriving as a family or a group of close friends seeking a restorative mountain retreat, Chalet Cortil offers an effortlessly refined base from which to explore one of the Alps' most iconic resorts.
