THE RESIDENCE

Chalet Bavaria

Chalet Bavaria is a magnificent standalone mountain residence in the exclusive Swiss resort of Verbier, commanding breathtaking panoramic views across the valley and set just minutes from Place Centrale and the main lift station. Extending across four generous floors and spanning four hundred and fifty square metres, this exceptional alpine home accommodates ten guests plus two in six beautifully appointed bedrooms, each bright and airy, finished with mosaic-style tiling and exquisite gold fixtures that lend the interiors an air of understated opulence.

The principal living floor unfolds as a sweeping open-plan sanctuary, anchored by a wood-burning fireplace whose warmth draws family and friends naturally together. Plush seating, a chess table and a dedicated television nook offer quiet diversions, while a south-facing balcony reveals the full splendour of the valley beyond. The dining area, elegantly illuminated by a statement chandelier, seats ten in convivial style, complemented by an adjoining open-plan kitchen and, on the floor below, a charming library and television room perfect for quieter moments. The top-floor master suite is a serene retreat in its own right, flooded with natural light through expansive windows and appointed with a dedicated workspace and a luxurious en-suite featuring his and hers sinks and a hammam shower.

The ground floor is devoted entirely to restoration and pleasure. A refined spa encompasses a sauna, a rejuvenating plunge pool and a dedicated relaxation area, flowing seamlessly to a spacious outdoor hot tub ideally positioned for an evening soak beneath the alpine sky. A private wine cellar with its own bar creates an intimate setting for leisurely tastings, whilst a fully equipped ski room with heated boot warmers and ample outerwear storage ensures effortless departures to the mountain each morning. A lift located just ten metres from the front door provides convenient access to the shared garage, completing a residence that balances alpine warmth with every modern comfort a discerning guest could desire.
