THE RESIDENCE

Chalet 1850

Nestled within an exclusive enclave where the forest meets the mountain, Chalet 1850 is a newly built testament to the finest French alpine architecture, positioned mere minutes from Val d'Isère's village centre and the main lift station. Spanning 216 square metres across three beautifully considered floors, this five-bedroom retreat accommodates eight guests plus four children, and benefits from a triple exposure to both southwest and northern light, ensuring the interiors are bathed in the full drama of the surrounding mountain panorama throughout the day.

The uppermost floor forms the social heart of the chalet, where an open-plan living, dining and kitchen space unfolds beneath exposed wooden beams and statement pendant lighting. Neutral hues, bespoke furnishings and impeccable finishes strike a considered balance between contemporary refinement and authentic alpine warmth, while a wood-burning fireplace and expansive floor-to-ceiling windows complete the atmosphere. An impressive dining table seating ten invites long, candlelit evenings, and a fully equipped kitchen caters equally to private chefs and those who prefer the pleasure of self-prepared meals. The first floor reveals a harmonious spa sanctuary comprising a hot tub, sauna and shower, alongside a master bedroom with en-suite bathroom, separate shower and twin sinks, as well as a further double bedroom with a private balcony. A dedicated children's quad bunk room with en-suite facilities completes this level, whilst the ground floor houses two additional double bedrooms, each with en-suite shower rooms, and a private cinema room perfect for evenings away from the slopes.

Practical comforts have been considered with equal care: a private ski and boot room with heated boot warmers ensures seamless departures each morning, and the property offers both an indoor parking space within the shared garage and an additional outdoor space. From the seclusion of a forest-edge setting to the warmth of a wood-burning fire at day's end, Chalet 1850 delivers an entirely immersive alpine experience of the highest order.
