THE RESIDENCE

Chalet Scandinavia

Chalet Scandinavia is a beautifully conceived four-bedroom retreat in Verbier, Switzerland, accommodating up to eight guests across three thoughtfully arranged floors and spanning 240 square metres of refined alpine living. Clad in dark wood and framed by pine green shutters, the chalet's striking exterior sits in harmony with its mountain surroundings, while its position just a few minutes' walk from the Les Esserts piste and a short drive from the Médran lift station ensures effortless access to the slopes.

The principal floor reveals an open-plan kitchen and living area of genuine distinction, where Scandinavian-inspired neutral tones and considered design create an atmosphere of calm sophistication. A fully equipped kitchen, centred on a sleek island with grey counters and counter seating, overlooks a dining table for eight, the entire space flooded with natural light from generous windows and large doors that open onto a south-facing wrap-around balcony. Here, panoramic mountain views, al fresco dining and long hours of sunshine reward those who linger. A wood-burning fireplace anchors the living area, offering a deeply comfortable retreat after time on the mountain, while a guest WC completes this floor with quiet practicality.

The uppermost floor is devoted entirely to a master bedroom of warmth and character, featuring a lounging area, a small desk on the landing, a television and an en-suite bathroom with separate shower. On the ground floor, three further bedrooms each offer their own en-suite facilities and mountain views, one twin or double room benefiting from direct terrace access to the private outdoor hot tub and a secluded garden beyond. A garage with two indoor parking spaces completes this exceptional chalet, making Chalet Scandinavia an ideal setting for a winter season in the Swiss Alps.
