THE RESIDENCE

Chalet L'Arctique

Chalet L'Arctique occupies a privileged position in the heart of Courchevel 1850, just a few steps from the main lift and a short stroll from the village centre. Spanning 330 square metres across four thoughtfully arranged floors, this beautifully appointed alpine retreat accommodates up to ten guests plus two in six stylish bedrooms, each finished in a classic mountain palette of dark timber and warm textures, with LED-lit bathrooms lending a quietly contemporary edge.

The uppermost floor is given over to a magnificent open-plan kitchen, living and dining space, where large glazed doors flood the interior with mountain light and frame sweeping views of the ski lift, the village and the Aiguille de Mey beyond. A solid walnut dining table seats up to sixteen, making it a natural gathering place for extended house parties, while a wrap-around sofa and two velvet armchairs arranged around a wood-burning fireplace invite lingering evenings after long days on the mountain. A second fireplace on the entrance floor, alongside a kitchenette and ski lockers fitted with boot heaters, ensures every practical comfort is elegantly attended to upon return from the slopes.

The six bedrooms are distributed across three floors and include a master suite with balcony access, a deep bath and a black marble sink, a double room with a roll-top bath, a further double overlooking the mountain with its own balcony, and a dedicated bunk room for younger guests. The spa floor crowns the experience with an indoor swimming pool and hot tub, offering a restorative retreat at the close of each day. With prices ranging from EUR 25,930 to EUR 117,690 and a choice of self-catered, bed and breakfast or fully catered service, Chalet L'Arctique presents a seamless fusion of luxury, comfort and alpine authenticity.
