THE RESIDENCE

Chalet La Rochette

Newly built and impeccably conceived, Chalet La Rochette is a standalone alpine retreat set in a picturesque corner of Verbier, just a three-minute walk from the piste leading down to the main ski lifts. Spanning four levels and 250 square metres, this singular property accommodates ten guests across five generously proportioned en-suite bedrooms, each thoughtfully designed to balance refined comfort with genuine alpine warmth. Floor-to-ceiling windows draw the surrounding peaks and valley deep into the interior, while two spacious terraces and a wrap-around balcony invite guests to linger in the mountain air long after the lifts have closed.

The first floor unfolds as a sweeping open-plan living space, anchored by a statement wood-burning fireplace and furnished with a striking curved sofa and sumptuous velvet armchairs. The adjoining dining room seats twelve at a custom-designed table, complemented by a sleek kitchen featuring granite countertops and bespoke wooden cabinetry. Above, the master suite commands its own private balcony with uninterrupted views of the surrounding peaks, a luxurious en-suite bathroom with separate shower, twin sinks and a spacious dressing area completing this serene upper sanctuary. Four further double bedrooms, several with terrace access, occupy the upper ground floor, each finished with equal care and attention.

At ground level, Chalet La Rochette reveals its most indulgent offerings: a private cinema room, a sauna, and a hammam, together forming a dedicated haven of rest and entertainment after a day on the mountain. A heated ski and boot room ensures effortless mornings, while a wooden hot tub positioned on the terrace below frames a beautiful, unhurried view of the valley. With weekly rates ranging from CHF 21,710 to CHF 122,090, this exceptional property represents the very finest of contemporary Swiss alpine living.
